

STORK, to reduce to a minimum the risk of accidental needle and lancet puncture.

It reduce to a minimum the risk of an accidental needle and lancet puncture, and it is able to cut in less than 2 seconds any type of needle and lancet; the best technology for your safety in hospital.

The best technology for your safety in hospital

- › Pratical to use
- › Speed of execution
- › High level of safety
- › Very high performance
- › Easy to carry
- › It does not release gases
- › It does not release bad odours
- › Great reliability
- › High degree of autonomy
- › Minimum space
- › Suitable for all types of needle and lancet
- › No chance of coming into contact with the needle and lancet during and after the operation
- › Adaptability to all hospital wards
- › High-level and safe technological standards

What is left to the operator is completely harmless.

Surgeon's gown, syringes, lancet, etc... will be sterile, smooth and without dangerous edges thanks to a special cut able to exceed over 350°.

All needles and lancet are collected automatically in a disposable single-use plastic container completely sealed.

Technical Specifications

Dimension:

Length 140mm
Depth 193mm
Height 120mm
Weight 1.2 kg

Power 1,2 Ah
Voltage 12V

Needle and lancet cut phase

Disposal phase 1

Disposal phase 2

MRC AG

Lerchenfeldstrasse 23
CH-9450 Altstätten
E.: info@mrc-ag.com
W.: www.mrc-ag.com
T.: +41 (0) 71 750 04 60
F.: +41 (0) 71 750 04 61